Code of Conduct for Financial Institutions

956. MAULANA OBAIDULLAH KHAN AZMI:
SHRI SANJAY DALMIA:

Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state:

(a) what are the details of the code of conduct for Financial Institutions like UTI, IDBI, IFCI, and other such institutions for making resolutions of confidence in the management of various private sector companies where these institutions are presented in the management of their respective companies;

(b) whether the permission to move such resolutions from Government is necessary; and

(c) if so, the reasons therefor?

THE MINISTER OF FINANCE (SHRI MANMOHAN SINGH): (a) All India Financial Institutions (AIFIs) have evolved guidelines in respect of nominee directors appointed by them on the Boards of assisted companies. These guidelines, inter-alia, deal with appointment/withdrawal of nominee directors, role of nominee directors, their participation in Board meetings of assisted companies and reporting by nominee directors. The nominee directors are expected to act in the best interest of the company and also safeguard the interest of the AIFI concerned. Government owned AIFIs such as Industrial Development Bank of India(IDBI) and Industrial
